CONFIDENTIAL

STREAMER NECROS

VLADAN ALEKSANDAR KONSTANTINOV

Born into unfavourable Serbian conditions, he never stopped dreaming of becoming a great man. Well, in the literal sense, that didn't work out too well for him, but despite the adversity of his genetic fate, he decided to follow his dream through an online jester persona, which eventually led him to success of unprecedented proportions.

Thanks to this success, he now helps those less fortunate in life by redirecting an abstract financial flow toward his suckuppers.

#Опусти се. Руже нису за свакога. Само за ту једну особу која ми се увуче под кожу... иритантно добро.

KID'S ROOM HERO PUNCHES

„Even a gnome casts a long shadow at sunset.“

Having spent your entire life sheltered within the safety of your childhood bedroom, you never learned how to properly defend yourself in the real world. However, the anonymity of the internet grants you the confidence to strike at anyone who dares challenge your (in)correct opinions. Unleash a relentless barrage of mind-tickling verbal punches, overwhelming your enemies with a cannonade of hollow rhetoric. Damage done directly correlates with size of an affected enemy (the bigger the enemy from Necros, the stronger the mental toll inflicted) and level of self-confidence applied.

THE RAID!

„Can we get rid of “Nizr”, uh um Necros, please and finally?”

Q

The English language can sometimes be truly treacherous even for a rather flexible Serbian tongue. In the worst moments, it can expose our darkest worldviews. As part of the redemption process, the ultimate ability The Raid! comes to the rescue. By raiding ANY other content creator, the hero is cleansed of all negative effects, restores their health to maximum, and silences their opponents for a brief moment.

SHIFT

Life of a streamer is a truly grim fate. Whenever you feel like you can't keep going, you can dodge your obligations by parting your time out. By activating this ability, you disappear from everyone's screens and become undetectable. Pressing Shift again or dealing damage reveals your position and makes you targetable once more. This ability has synergy with Gnome's Excuses. When Right Click is available, you can justify your disappearance with charismatic reasoning, deceiving your foes.

GNOME'S EXCUSES

„A lion doesn't concern himself with the opinions of the sheep.“
If excusing poor gameplay decisions or blaming others for one's own faulty actions were a means to grow taller, this hero would be a towering giant. Unfortunately, that is not the case; in Necros's instance, the effect is quite the opposite. Each excuse further diminishes his presence, shrinking both stature and credibility. After a failed attack or offensive engagement (falling into the void) this ability is automatically enabled. Upon activation, based on the amount of AURA, you get randomly assigned EXCUSE. Further effectiveness is not guaranteed.

KEY

DURATION

10s - 2s (depending on the AURA spent)

COOLDOWN

No cooldown

SPECIAL EFFECT

Using EXCUSE depletes all AURA unless the deflect is successful (a successful EXCUSE only depletes 50% of AURA). The strength of the EXCUSE increases proportionally with the amount of AURA used.

EXCUSE LEVELS

0 - 24 = BONUS HEALTH + CC IMMUNE (1.)
25 - 49 = 1. + DAMAGE REDUCTION (2.)
50 - 74 = 2. + REFLECTIVE WARD (RETURNS 27% DAMAGE TAKEN) (3.)
75 - 99 = 3. + SELF HEAL (50% HP) (4.)
100 = 4. + ABSOLUTE REFLECTIVE IMMUNITY

EXCUSE LEVELS DURATIONS

0 - 24 = 10s
25 - 49 = 8s
50 - 74 = 6s
75 - 99 = 4s

„Preview window, shining bright, Who's the star in frame tonight?“

F

Upon activation, you become subtly (not really) enveloped in an aura of SELF-GLAZE RADIANCE. For the duration of this buff, you instinctively angle your posture into flawlessly flattering poses, as though observing yourself in an unseen stream preview. Occasionally, this action causes you to inconspicuously flex your deflated biceps, non-chalantly fix your hair and effortlessly adjust your glasses with subsequent smirk. SELF-GLAZE RADIANCE boosts ego and confidence levels by a great margin and helps with overall performance.

PERFORMANCE BOOST

19.99%

This ability has a slight chance of blinding the observing audience, positively or negatively. Positive effect makes people affected by SELF-GLAZE RADIANCE (higher chance of donations) and furthermore spread it. The negative effect may cause viewers to recoil in secondhand embarrassment and immediately close the stream.

SKINS

SERBIAN UNCLE

After surviving decades on the wild Serbian outskirts, he finally unleashes his true identity: The Serbian Alpha Male. Wrapped in the proud heritage of his ancestors, he now battles not only his enemies, but also his most fearsome opponent yet; the endlessly annoying Tax Administration of the Republic of Serbia.

With every stylish step, he crushes paperwork, slays ill-wishers, and proves once again that true Balkan greatness cannot be contained. Through raw strength, ancient rizz, and pure alpha energy, he continues bringing eternal glory to the old Serbian Empire; one defeated hater at a time.

#Не замери се невероватној Србији.

VLADAN 2055

Years pass, and so does Necros's youth. After exhausting years of deflecting and denying various allegations directed at his persona, he finally decided to abandon his already dying streaming career. Like any mortal, he was forced to find a substitute job to support his family's expenses. Thanks to his high standards, he managed to find a young and charming wife; however, with every millimeter of his hairline receding, she is already looking for a younger and even more tireless Slavic stallion. Can he save his dignity and keep his wife by attempting to run for president and winning the hearts of all people?

NYANCROS

They say: “The sky is the limit.” For this dangerously cute little troublemaker, the sky is two fluffy cat ears, a jingling bell choker, and the forbidden spell whispered with a sly grin: “Moe Moe Kyun~”. Bold enough to wear the frills, brave enough to own the meow, and cheeky enough to make you question everything. This kitten isn’t afraid of his masculinity taking a hit. Oh no... he’s far too busy turning it into a secret weapon. Because what’s more purrfectly manly than a guy who can serve your wildest dreams while meowing his way to victory? Small, fluffy, and deceptively deadly; this fella hides the instincts of a true feline predator behind the sweetest, most disarming smile. Cute enough to disarm you. Dangerous enough to make you beg for more.
